

CDR CAROLYN MOBERLEY
SECTOR SAULT SAINTE MARIE
DEPUTY SECTOR COMMANDER

Commander Moberley assumed the duties as Deputy Commander for Sector Sault Sainte Marie, Michigan, in May 2017, where she implements the Sector Commander's vision and strategies for all Coast Guard missions across the Sector Sault Sainte Marie area of responsibility on Lake Superior, the St. Marys River, Northern Lake Michigan, and Northern Lake Huron, an area that encompasses 1,850 miles of shoreline and 560 miles of international maritime border with Canada. In fulfilling these responsibilities, Commander Moberley leads more than 750 active duty, reserve, civilian, and auxiliary personnel, and employs 23 boats assigned to seven multi-mission stations and two Aids to Navigation Teams.

Commander Moberley's field assignments include: Response Chief, Sector Sault Sainte Marie, MI; Incident Management Division Chief, Sector Lake Michigan, Milwaukee, WI; Command Center Chief, Sector Buffalo, NY, during which time she deployed in support of the Deepwater Horizon oil spill response; and Deck Watch Officer, USCGC JARVIS. She also served two assignments at Coast Guard Headquarters in the Strategic Management Directorate and the Deputy Commandant of Operations' Office of Budget Development.

A native of Middletown, Connecticut, Commander Moberley was commissioned in 2000. She holds a BS in Operations Research from the United States Coast Guard Academy and an MS in Computational Operations Research from the College of William and Mary. Her personal awards include four Coast Guard Commendation Medals and three Coast Guard Achievement Medals.
